The Newsletter Advisors Email File comprises active stock investors who are seeking specific stock picks that will help them maximize the returns of their self-directed stock portfolios.

Investors are upper-middle income individuals, mostly men, who take advice from today's leading market experts (both in print and online) to help them with their investment decisions. They are in direct control of their own self-directed funds, using their PCs to make online stock transactions and track their results.

Newsletter Advisors offers individuals a complimentary special report titled Top Ten Stocks from America's Leading Advisors via their web site, www.newsletteradvisors.com. The report features specific stock picks from industry gurus such as David and Tom Gardner (Motley Fool), Bernie Schaeffer (Schaeffer's Investment Research), Ian Wyatt (Growth Report, Rising Star Stocks and Top Stock Insights), and more.

Free reports are updated and offered on a quarterly basis, with a common stock/investment theme. Up and coming reports will cover specific industry sectors (oil and energy, technology, biomedical, etc), undervalued stocks, blue chip bargains, and more. Different industry experts will be brought in with each new report to give investors fresh thinking from some of the best minds on Wall Street. When requesting their report, investors are asked for their postal address and are presented with complimentary or trial offers from a variety of investment publications, including Investor's Business Daily, The Motley Fool, Schaeffer's Investment Research and more.

The Newsletter Advisors Email File targets an active investment audience that is aggressively seeking investment information and analysis in order to maximize investment returns. They are receptive to a wide range of financial, technology, and upscale direct mail offers.
